VOCABULARY

Revise the keywords of the lesson.

Getting started on the Internet to connect = to join, to link access to sth = the ability to use to go online = to use the Internet to browse (the Internet) = to look at websites

Using the Internet to search the Internet = to look for information on the Internet; also: do an Internet search) to download = to copy onto the computer (opp. upload) video clips = small parts of a video recording item = product (e.g. a book) checkout = the place on a website where you order and pay for goods surfing the web = looking at different websites social networking sites = places on the Internet where you can have a discussion with other people, e.g. Facebook to post = to leave messages

© 2007 - 2018 Università degli Studi eCampus - Via Isimbardi 10 - 22060 Novedrate (Co) - C.F. 9002752130 - Tel: 031.79421 - Fax: 031.7942501 - Mail: info@uniecampus.it

Some tips for effective use of email check your mail = look to see if you have any messages inbox = a place on a computer where emails that are sent to you are kept to respond = to reply, to answer delete = to remove (part or all of) a written or electronic text recipient = a person who receives something (e.g. an email)] to attach = to join a file such as a document, picture, or computer program, to an email to save = to put information into a computer's memory or onto a computer disk to proofread = to find and correct mistakes in text before it is printed or put online to convey = to express feelings, thoughts, or information to other people carbon copy (cc) = a copy of the email you are sending will also be sent to that address blind carbon copies (bcc) = a copy of the email you are sending will also be sent to that address, but no one receiving the email will be able to see the address in the BCC field to skim = to read or consider something quickly in order to understand the main points, without studying it in detail to forward = to send e-mail to someone else or to a different address after you have received it to acknowledge = to tell someone, usually in a letter or email, that you have received something they sent you receipt = the act of receiving something signature = your name written in a particular way

© 2007 - 2018 Università degli Studi eCampus - Via Isimbardi 10 - 22060 Novedrate (Co) - C.F. 9002752130 - Tel: 031.79421 - Fax: 031.7942501 - Mail: info@uniecampus.it