WRITING

What did you do yesterday/last weekend? Write a composition of 100 words using the Past Simple tense.

Yesterday I had a very productive day. I got up at eight o'clock, took a quick shower, and drank a cup of strong coffee for breakfast. In the morning, I turned on my computer and studied for my university exams for three hours. I also wrote some code for a personal software project and replied to several emails. At one o'clock, I cooked pasta for lunch. In the afternoon, I went to the gym and worked out for an hour. Later, I met two friends in the town centre and we had a drink together. I didn't stay out late because I was tired, so I went to bed at eleven o'clock.
