WRITING

Imagine that you plan to stay at a hotel in England. You call the reception to ask for information. Think about the questions you would ask in this situation and write a dialogue. Include some phrases from "ASKING FOR INFORMATION ON THE TELEPHONE" part, too.

Receptionist: Good morning, Roma Hotel, Lisa speaking. How can I help you?

ME: Good morning, my name is Marco. I'm calling about booking a room at your hotel for next weekend. I was wondering if you could give me a little more information. Do you have any rooms available?

Receptionist: Certainly. For what date and for how many nights?

ME: From Friday 14th to Sunday 16th, so for two nights. I'd like a single room with a shower, please. Could you tell me what your rates are?

Receptionist: Yes, we have a single room available. The price is 85 euro per night.

ME: Great. I'd also like to know if breakfast is included in the price, and what time breakfast is served.

Receptionist: Yes, breakfast is included in the price, and it is served between 7 am and 10 am.

ME: OK, just to get this clear, the total rate is 85 euro per night including breakfast. There's just one other thing I'd like to check: could I ask you if there is a shuttle service from the airport to the hotel?

Receptionist: I'm afraid not, but there is a taxi rank just outside the door and an underground station nearby.

ME: Right, I think that's all I need to know. Thank you very much for your help. Goodbye!

Receptionist: You're welcome. Goodbye!
