PRACTICE

Fill in the gaps with can, could, must, can't, or may/might.

1) Speak up! I can't hear you.
2) You haven't eaten all day. you must be hungry.
3) You've just drunk your tea. You can't be thirsty.
4) Peter can swim very well. He spent half of his childhood in the swimming pool.
5) Perhaps Maggie is in her office. She may be there.
6) Tom could read when he was 5.
7) It's so dark in here. Can you see anything?
8) Lara gave me her phone number. I must have it somewhere.
9) I've heard something about Susan, but it may be true.
10) As a child I could do whatever I wanted.
