

09. Writing Activity

Guided Writing 1

In your English class, you have been talking about the weather as a topic of conversation.
Write an essay using the notes, and give your reasons for your point of view.

Question:
Why do the British love talking about the weather?

Notes:
- Oscar Wilde said that talking about the weather was the last refuge of the unimaginative.
- According to a recent research, 94% of Brits admit having conversed about the weather in the past six hours.
- Several features of Britain's geography make the weather the way it is: mild, changeable, and famously unpredictable, therefore an interesting topic of conversation.

Write and upload your essay in about 100 words, using the notes.

09. Writing Activity

Guided Writing 2

Your English Literature teacher has asked you to write a story that begins with the following sentence:

"The weather suddenly changed: a freezing wind started blowing and dark, rain filled clouds began gathering in the black sky…"

Write and upload your story in about 150 words.